

WHAT DO TEXANS THINK?

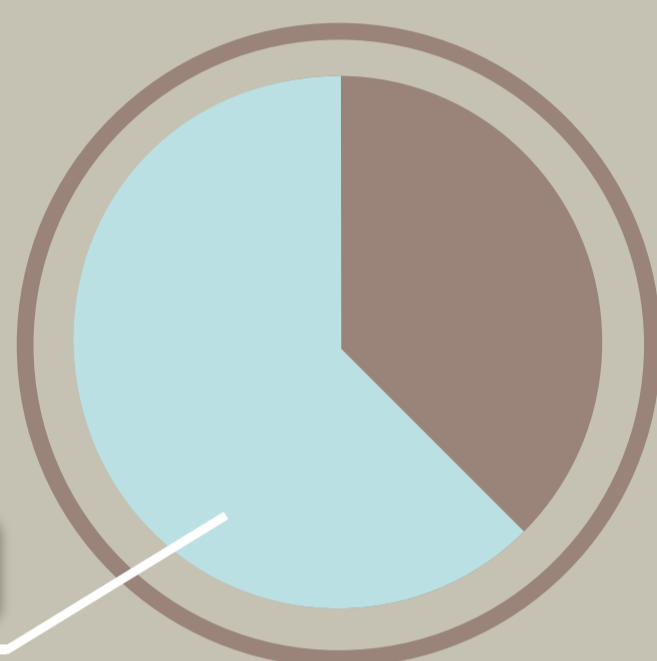

Highlights from an independent statewide poll conducted Sept. 8-21, 2015, by the Texas Lyceum, the state's premier non-partisan, nonprofit statewide leadership group.

BORDER SECURITY

remains the most important issue facing the state and Texans support lawmakers' increased spending on border security.

62% of Texans support lawmakers' approval to spend $800 million on border security.

62%

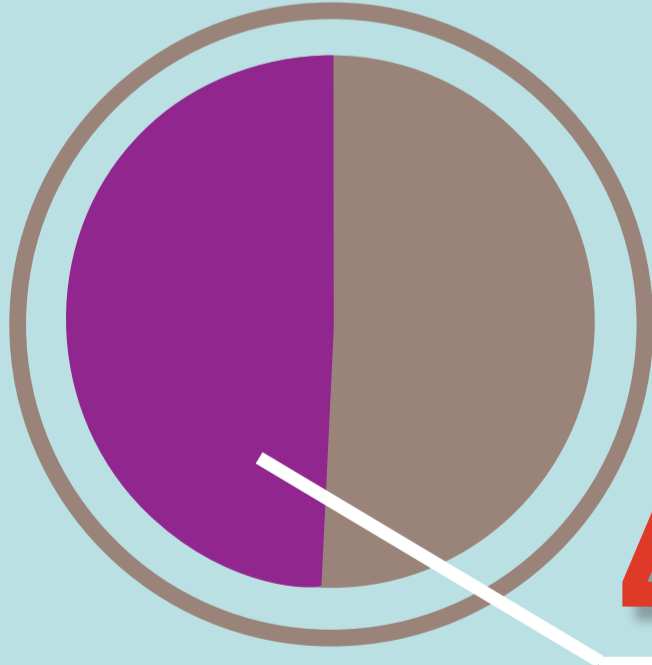

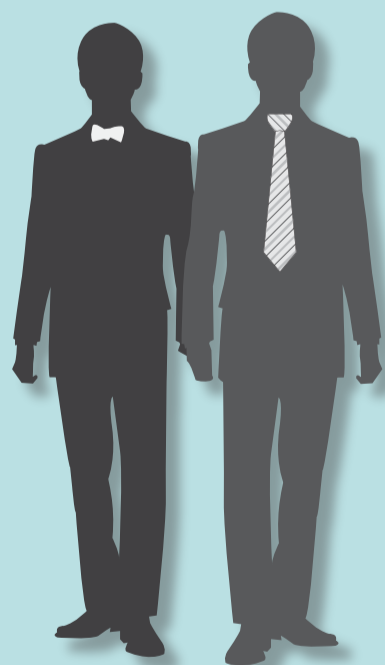

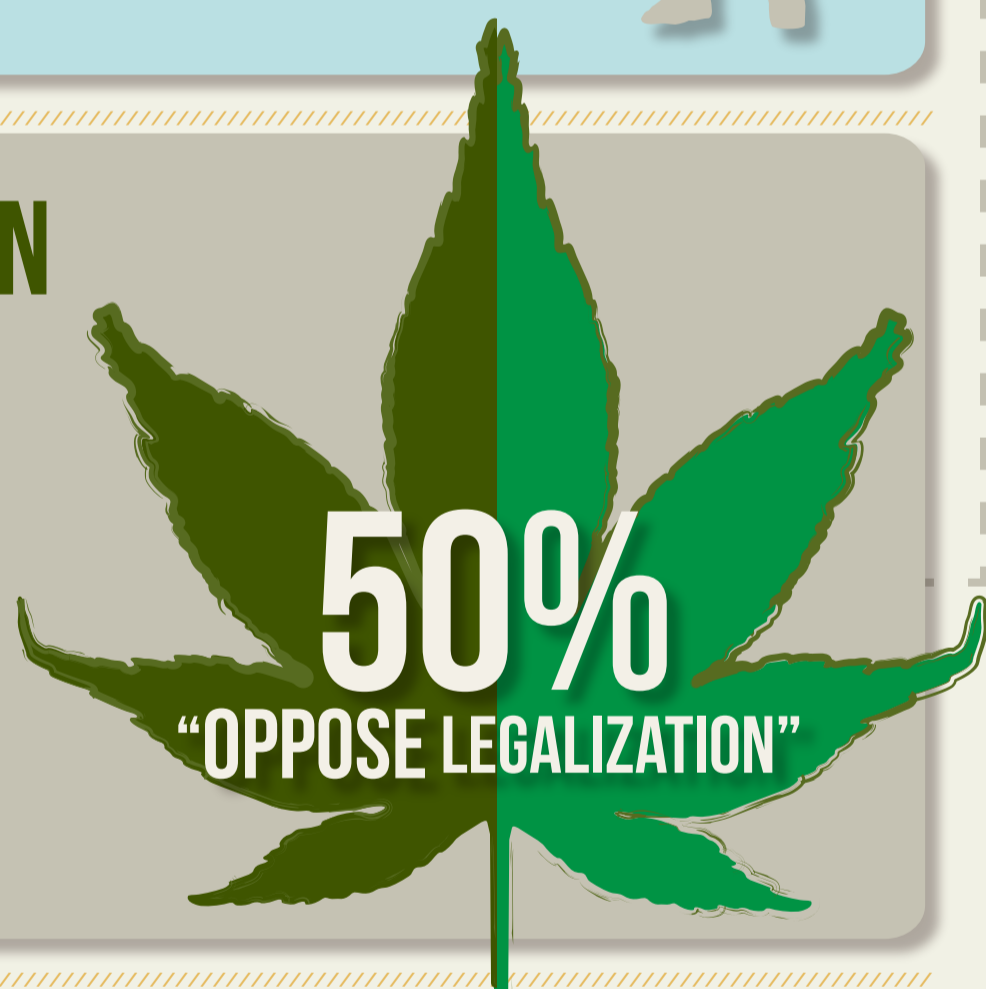

FOOTBALL RULES

Despite national poll numbers revealing 40 percent of Americans would discourage their children from playing youth football, 72 percent of Texans would encourage children to play football.

MARIJUANA LEGALIZATION

50 percent of Texans are opposed to legalizing marijuana, but among those who oppose legalization, 57 percent said they would support decriminalization.

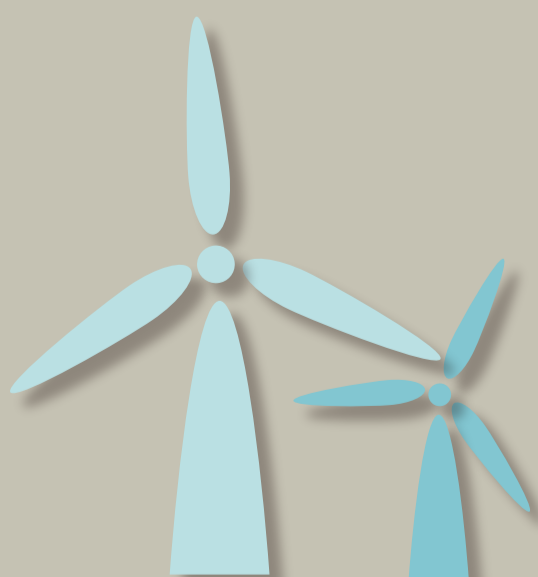

GAY MARRIAGE

Texans' views on gay marriage are changing. 49 percent of Texans support gay marriage - up from 29 percent in 2009.

49%

CLIMATE CHANGE

Texans are not overly concerned about climate change, but a majority (67 percent) would support new regulations on companies.
